
#GoldStarChallenge

Use gold stars (or check marks, etc.) for motivation to do something every day that helps you work toward a personal goal.

If you choose to share on social media, I encourage you to use the #GoldStarChallenge hashtag so others can see. However, feel free to only post sometimes, or not at all! I am NOT posting publicly about this every day because I know it will influence what and how I create. Good luck! -- Debbie Ridpath Ohi
